There is a planned gathering on Friday April 30 at 7:00 PM PST at a community center in Las Vegas entitled “DA Wolfson Do Your Job” in response to the decision to not indict

LVMPD officers involved in a 2020 shooting. The group planning the gathering is the same group that have actively gathered in front of officer residences for the past several months. At this time, LVMPD estimates between 25-50 attendees based on previous gatherings. The location was likely selected because the DA lives in a community that is private property; therefore the group cannot gather in front of his home. LMVPD has no significant threat concerns at this time.

There is a planned public assembly for the 15th Annual Vegas May Day on May 1 at 5:00 PM PST in Las Vegas. The group plans a march for immigrant rights to coincide on the International Day of the Worker celebrated on the first day of May. At this time, online announcements estimate 20-60 attending. LMVPD has no significant threat concerns at this time.

Nothing to report from Milwaukee, however there was this to report from the suburb of Kenosha:

The "Enough is Enough" group was active today. It was attended by 30-40 people and a large contingent of "ACLU Legal Observers". There were two local media teams as well. The group congregated in front of the Public Safety Building for about 1-2 hours and then the majority left. Billy Violet who is one of the organizers, provided city operations with a list of demands and informed the police that her group with be occupying the front of the Public Safety Building until the demands are met. About 8 individuals set up sleeping bags against the front PSB doors and blocked them. The group began refusing to move for citizens coming to the PSB with legitimate business and then blocked Sgt. Lang as he attempted to escort a woman into the PSB to post a bond. Kenosha Sheriffs Department made contact with the group and the group again indicated that their goal was to block the PSB until their demands were met. Kenosha PD supported Kenosha SD as they ordered the group to move from blocking the door. 3 individuals refused to move from the doors and were arrested without incident. About 5 others, including Billy Violet, walked away and were not arrested.

Later in the evening the demonstrators took to the street and marched to the Federal Detention Center, once there they began to chant "free them all". The prisoners banged on their windows in response. The demonstrators then marched back to the torch of Friendship. The demonstrators were dressed in black and had anti police sayings. There were no arrests made.

In Portland tonight we had a group of 50-75 anarchists gather for an "autonomous demonstration" which led them to a trendy bar/restaurant area where there was some window breaking and graffiti. Ultimately we got two arrested for felony vandalism and the crowd left the area. The three arrows pointing down left is the "Iron Front" is synonymous with ANTIFA as an anti-fascist symbol. We have seen a variant of it where the bottom arrow points up and right instead of down and left (possibly indicating support for communism). They tagged (among other things) a Moroccan restaurant and a Starbucks.

Washington, DC:

We currently have approximately 50-60 protesters dressed in all black with umbrellas marching eastbound in the 1000 B/O PA Ave NW. Chanting anti-police slogans.

Milwaukee had a planned demonstration in Sherman Park however minutes before the start a homicide took place in the park so the protesters dispersed. The homicide was unrelated to the protests. Tomorrow the demonstrations continue in the vicinity of University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee area. Interest and attendance has been low. Milwaukee PD resumed normal operations and shut down the joint emergency operations center.

Boston Update,
Three scheduled events took place last night in Boston, all of which had very small numbers in attendance and ended peacefully. One event blocked traffic in front of Police Headquarters and disrupted traffic along the route it marched. Some bad weather rolled through, to include rain and lightning, which may have impacted both the number of people in attendance and the duration of the events (all concluded before 8:00 PM, which is unusual). The next social justice-related event scheduled in the city is a rally and march on Saturday evening, 6PM at Boston Common. NFI.

Good Morning-

Sacramento had a peaceful gathering at Chavez Park that had no issues. Additionally a march was organized in West Sacramento that was intended to march into downtown Sacramento, but the group dispersed prior to it taking place.

Thanks
Dan

- Boston – 3:52PM (PST): There is currently no activity in the city. Three events, each with potential to attract large crowds, are scheduled for tomorrow evening; 1630 at South Station, 1700 at State House, 1700 at Nubian Square/BPD District B2 Station.

The details state the following "Even if Chauvin is convicted, there is still nothing to stop killer cops from going out and committing more crimes. We must demand substantial change. We need to defund and control the police!". The second event is titled "March for George Floyd" planned for April 22nd at 1715 hours CDT at Sherman Park in Milwaukee.

- Pittsburgh – 11:24AM (PST): An "emergency rally" is planned for April 24th at 1300 hours at East Liberty Presbyterian Church titled "Free Mumia!".
- Salt Lake City – 8:38AM (PST): There are no relevant or significant events to report for this week. Major local activist groups have announced that on the day the Derek Chauvin verdict is released, if it is before 6pm they plan to protest that same day. If the verdict is released after 6pm they plan to protest the following day. They do plan to protest or celebrate (their words) regardless of what the verdict is. While these announcements are from the major local groups, the department recognizes that there may be smaller, separate groups with different plans, and they are monitoring those as well.

- Wichita – 7:40AM (PST): We are anticipating an event tonight 4/20/2021. This has been advertised on social media as a George Floyd Protest & Car Meet. Their plan is to close a major intersection to do burnouts and protest, "like last year".
- Long Beach – 7:18AM (PST): On Monday, April 19, a group of 15 people gathered and peacefully marched to the Long Beach City Hall and held a peaceful rally. No issues, concerns, or criminal behavior observed during the event.
- New York – 6:47AM (PST): Monday was quiet on the protest front. All though we had several small protests but no issues. Today we have several protests.

Thanks,

Dori
